Government Advertisement.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT,

1. IT having been judged necessary, that a daily report should be made to the Right Honorable the Governor, of the names and descriptions of all European travellers, arriving at or departing from this presidency, either by sea or land, notice is hereby given, that, from and after this date, all persons, not military, who will as usual report themselves to the Town Major, are expected immediately on their arrival at Bombay to report themselves, either personally, or in writing at the office of the senior magistrate of the police within the fort, specifying at the same time, their intended places of abode, during their stay at the presidency. And previously to their departure, they are expected in like manner to report to that officer, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor.

2. It is to be understood that the above order is considered to be applicable to persons usually residing at Bombay, who may proceed occasionally to any place beyond the Islands of Bombay, Salsette, Caranjah or Elephanta.

3. And Europeans of whatever rank, description, or country, who shall be discovered passing through the territories under this presidency, beyond the islands above mentioned, without being furnished with a regular passport, will be taken into custody, and confined until the pleasure of government shall be known.

4. The only exception which the Right Honorable the Governor in council has been pleased to make to the foregoing resolution, is in favor of officers commanding parties of His Majesty's or the Honorable Company's troops, or of officers of the civil, or military establishments proceeding from station to station on duty, or known to the magistrates, collectors, or senior civil, or military authorities of the divisions, to be in the actual employ of Government.

5. For the more strict execution of this order, notice is hereby further given, that a reward of ten Rupees, will be paid to any person, who shall take up, and bring into the nearest garrison, or to the magistrate of the division, any European deserter, or vagrant of any description.

6. Passports will be granted at Bombay, by the senior magistrate of police, or in his absence, by the junior magistrate, and at the outstations, by the magistrates, collectors or senior civil or military authorities there residing.

Published By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to admit Mr. Samuel Love as an acting assistant Surgeon on this establishment until the pleasure of the Honorable the Court of Directors shall be known.

Bombay Castle 16th April 1818.

The Right Honorable the Governor in council is pleased to direct that infuture, disbursements on account of presents be supported by the oath of the officer by whom they are provided, before a competent authority, to the actual expenditure of the amount for the purpose therein stated, the charge being accompanied by a list of Persons to whom the presents were made.

Bombay Castle 17th April 1818.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council deeming it but equitable that officers of Cavalry should be remunerated, in particular cases, for the loss of their regimental chargers, is pleased to resolve, that horses killed in action, or wounded so as to become unserviceable, or lost by forced marches, exceeding thirty miles, or dying of an epidemical distemper, shall be replaced at the expence of the Honorable Company or the rate of Rupees (550) five hundred and fifty per horse, on a certificate being procured from the Commanding officer on the spot within two days after the casualty happens, that the accident evidently proceeded from one or other of the above causes.

In respect to the indemnification granted for a horse dying of an epidemical disease, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council desires it may be distinctly understood that compensation will not be admitted in such cases, unless it shall be clearly proved that the loss was occasioned by a distemper contracted from the horses of the Regiment to which the officer soliciting indemnification belongs, and not originating with that horse alone.

Bombay Castle 21st April 1818.

The Right Honorable the Court of Directors having in their letter of the 9th April 1817, to the Government of Prince of Wales Island, allowed Assistant Surgeon B. C. Henderson of this Establishment, employed under that Government, the option of returning with his pay to Bombay or relinquishing the situation at that presidency and continuing under that Government, and Mr. Henderson having preferred remaining permanently attached to the Medical establishment of that settlement, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct his name to be struck off from the establishment of this presidency.

THE COURIER,

APRIL 25, 1818.

On Sunday last, the Windsor Castle, Captain T. Haggard, arrived here from London. This ship sailed from England some days before the Columbo, whose arrival we announced in our last.

The Sappho, Captain Hall has not yet reached this port, altho' she was to have left Madeira, as we are informed, a few hours after the Windsor Castle.

We have given a full report of the evidence against the first prisoner tried at Derby for high treason. This man, Jeremiah Brandreth, and two others, William Turner and Isaac Ludlam have been executed. A fourth, George Weightman, was tried and found guilty. Nineteen others, on the advice of their counsel, withdrew their plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty; they were all condemned, but with Weightman have been respited during pleasure. Twelve more, having been put to the bar and pleaded not guilty, have been discharged; the attorney general not producing any evidence against them.

Nineteen of the principal persons implicated in the late conspiracy at Lisbon have been condemned to death.

Admiral Sir George Campbell is to be the new G. C. B. instead of the late Admiral Sir T. Duckworth.

The Argo, Lyons, from this port and Ceylon, arrived at Deal on the 3d Nov.

We are gratified to observe that the achievements of our military friends in India during the present brilliant campaign are likely to be brought into distinguished notice by the authorities in England. The LONDON GAZETTE of the 5th November contains extracts of the despatches from this Government, of April and May 1817, relative to the insurrection by Trimbuckjee Danglia; and among them, we notice Captain Evan Davies's report of the brilliant affair achieved by the reformed horse under his command over the insurgents in Candeish; and Major Smith's report of the equally gallant and successful attack on the enemy in the neighbourhood of Pattree between the 12th and 18th April, by the small detachment of Madras and Bombay troops.

By an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, British ships, without restriction as to size, are permitted to trade with India to and from Gibraltar and Malta; and we are desired to state that the respectable house of William Cozens and Co. of Gibraltar have been appointed Agents to the Hon'ble East India Company at that port; the firm of their London house is Cole, Cozens and Co.

The latest Calcutta paper in our possession is the Asiatic Mirror of the 25th March, from which we have had the great satisfaction to extract the General Orders issued by H. E. the commander in chief of the army of the Deckan on the unparelled achievements at Corygaum.

The Madras papers we have received during the last week are of an earlier date than those we had previously received, from them we have however copied the official account of the storming and capture of the fortress of Talnier, by H. E. Sir T. Hislop.

Major General Sir W. G. Keir, K. M. T. arrived here early on Thursday morning and landed under the salute due to his rank.

The Brampton, a King's packet, for Liverpool will sail to-morrow.

The Lang Captain Clark for London in all this month; letters to be sent by the Lang will be received at the office of Framjee Cowasjee.

The Earl of Buckinghamshire for Liverpool will go to sea about the 10th of May, and the Oromocto towards the end of that month.

The Dorothy and Seaforth are also loading for Liverpool; the time of their departure not yet fixed.

We have great satisfaction in publishing the following details of the operations of the force under Maj. Gen. Munro, with which we have been just favored.

On the 12th February the force under the command of Brigadier General Munro, consisting of a detachment of the 5th Light Cavalry Capt. Goston, the 2d Battalion 4th Regiment Major Newall, the 2d Bat. Pioneers Capt. Smithwaite, Battering train and detachment of Artillery Lieutenants Lewis and Dickenson, and ½ battalion of His Highness the Mysore Rajah's troops, arrived at Badaumy & the Killehdar refusing to give up the fort, operations were immediately commenced for taking the place.

On the morning of the 13th an advance post of the enemy's was taken by the flank companies of the 4th Regiment commanded by Lieutenant Moore.

On the evening of the 15th the breaching battery opened; at 9 o'clock at night, 2 squadrons of His Majesty's 22d Light Dragoons commanded by Major Broome reached camp, after a march of 40 miles; and on the 17th, the 2d battalion 9th regiment, commanded by Major Smith, arrived in camp from General Long's army on the south bank of the Toombudra river. The breach having been reported practicable, orders were given for storming the place the next morning at 4 o'clock, the 18th; and at ¼ before 5 o'clock, the party, consisting of the flank companies of the 4th and 9th regiments, volunteers of His Majesty's 22d dragoons, and the 2d battalion pioneers with the ladders, moved to the breach; on reaching the ditch the enemy became alarmed and in a very few minutes the whole party were in the fort, driving the enemy before them. The whole of the 4th regt. were ordered into the fort to the support of the storming party, and shortly after their arrival, day dawned, and the enemy in the upper forts finding us in possession of the whole of the lower fort surrendered. Our loss was trifling, 1 serjeant of Artillery and 1 man of His Majesty's 22d dragoons, killed; 2 Europeans and 6 matrosses wounded. The enemy left 15 killed at the breach, and several wounded; their loss during the siege is estimated at 60 men. The following orders were published.

DETACHMENT ORDERS BY MAJ. NEWALL,
18th February 1818.

Major Newall requests Captain Rose to accept of his best thanks for the gallant and officer-like manner in which he led the advance of the storming party into the fort of Badaumy this morning; and the greatest praise is due to Lieutenants Moore, Watson and Robertson, the volunteers of His Majesty's 22d Lt. dragoons, the flank companies of the 4th and 9th regiments, for their gallant zeal and steady conduct in the attack, which was crowned with the success which steady troops led by brave officers must always command.

Lieutenant Nelthropp with the advance of pioneers have well supported the character of their corps, by the steady manner in which they advanced at the head of the storming party with the scaling ladders, and by their cool conduct in placing them in the breach.

DIVISION ORDERS BY BRIGADIER GENERAL MUNRO.

Camp at Badaumy, 19th Feb. 1818.

Brigadier General Munro has great satisfaction in thanking Captain Rose for the very gallant manner in which he led the advance of the storming party, without firing, over the breach into the lower fort of Badaumy yesterday morning. His best thanks are also due to Lieutenants Moore, Watson and Robertson for the cool and spirited style in which they led their companies to the assault; to the volunteers of His Majesty's 22d Dragoons for so nobly supporting the character of British soldiers; to the flank companies of the 2d Bat. 4th Regt. and 2d Bat. 9th Regt. for the discipline and courage they displayed in the attack; and to Lieutenant Nelthropp for the cool and steady way in which he advanced with his party of Pioneers and placed the ladders on the breach.

Major Newall's whole conduct in the direction of the storming party merits the highest praise; the judgment with which he supported it, and the ardour with which he pushed the attack to the walls of the upper forts contributed greatly to hasten their surrender, as no time was given to the enemy to recover from their panic.

The commanding officer returns his warmest thanks to Lieut. Lewis for the excellent firing from the breaching battery, and to Lieutenant Dickenson for the style in which he kept down the enemy's fire and disabled several of their guns from the hill, and to both these officers and their men for the soldier-like perseverance with which they have gone thro' their laborious duties without relief; to Captain Smithwaite for joining the storming party notwithstanding severe indisposition, and to the whole Corps of Pioneers for their arduous exertions during the siege.

Belgaum surrendered to General Munro's force on the 11th instant after an obstinate defence of 21 days.

It is one of the strongest forts south of the Kistna, and has never before been taken.

The force was to move on the 17th Inst. to join General Pritzler and after forming a junction it is reported will move to Sholapoor.

General Pritzler has with him the following, 4 com. of rifles, flank battalion, 2d batt. 12th regt. Artillery and Commissariat.

The detachment of the 5th light cavalry commanded by Capt. Goston marched on the 14th April to join its head quarters with Gen. Long.

From the Bombay Gaz. April 22d.

The Force under General Munro, in the southern part of the Deckan, have taken Belghaum and were marching to the attack of Nepaunee, one of their strongest holds, after reducing which they would march further east, in the direction of Punderpoore, where many forts are still in possession of the enemy. Our correspondent informs us that the country hereabout is most delightful, being an extensive plain, rich beyond description, the villages large and populous, surrounded with trees, and many situated on the bank of rivers; forage is in plenty, and provisions abundant, as this part of the country has not been before the seat of war.

CAMP BEFORE CHANDAH.
7TH APRIL.

On our advance to within fifty miles of this, we fell in with, and dispersed, a body of Bajee Row's horse, the advance of his whole force who had crossed to the east bank of the Warda on the 3d, with an intention of marching on Chandah, agreeable to an invitation from the Killedar of that place, some prisoners that we took gave us the following account of his force and commanders;

Bajee Row's horse under his Brother Chimnajee Appa	6000
Nepunker	3000
Vinchore Raja	6000
The late Gokla's Brother	10,000
Ramdeen, one of Holkar's late Chiefs	4000
Trimbuckjee Danglia	3000
Gunput Row	2000
	34,000

The direction of this large force was changed by our small one, consisting of the—

6th Bengal Cavalry, including a squadron of the 8th	800
Pedlar's Horse	1000
Three Galloper Guns.
Infantry	1000

This will give some idea of the state of alarm that exists in their camps, and what a wretched cowardly crew his army is composed of.

We have the satisfaction to report the reduction of the fort of Ramghur, in the Province of Salsee, by a detachment under the command of Colonel Pearson; and the occupation of that of Cumta by Lieutenant Colonel Imlack, who had proceeded to invest Deoghur.

The following Extract of Brigade Orders by Lieutenant Colonel Prother, dated Camp Indapore 17th April 1818— will clearly elucidate a very spirited affair in which a detachment of the force under that officer's command has been engaged.

The Commanding Officer with sentiments of satisfaction publishes to the force, for general information, the following particulars of the attack of the stockades under Capt. Rose, H.M.89th Reg.

There were three stockades on a range of hills, in shape somewhat like a half crescent; Capt. Rose divided his detachment in three parts, one under Capt.

Digitized with financial assistance from the Government of Maharashtra on 08 April, 2017

Hutchinson and Lieut. Crosby, another with Lieut. Bellassis and Lieutenant Dowdall, the third under his personal commad with Lieut. Phelan (the enemy were in number five hundred under the superintendence of a Dewan, with rocket batteries, and two small guns,); the detachment of Poona auxiliary horse supported the infantry. The attack on the flank stockades commenced nearly at the same time under a heavy fire of rockets and musquestry; they were carried in a very gallant style by Capt. Hutchinson, and Lieut. Bellassis, the enemy abandoning the post immediately; on perceiving which, Capt. Rose, who had maintained the centre for the purpose of supporting the parties, gallantly pushed on and carried the main stockade, capturing two guns.

The Poona auxiliary horse under Brigade Major Moore perceiving the enemy making off, ascended the hill with difficulty, and finding a road got up to a party of the enemy under the Dewan, killed many of them, and took the Dewan, and others, prisoners.

The commanding officer tenders his thanks to Capt. Rose for his judicious arrangement, and to all the officers and men who had the honor to share in the success of the morning.

Lieut. Col. Prother is pleased to express his approbation of Brigade Major Moore's conduct and of the Poona auxiliary horse.

Lieut. Col. Prother conceives this affair to be worthy of representation to H. E. the Commander in chief, it is his pride and ever will be to bring to notice the conduct of any part of his gallant force, from whom in the present campaign he has received such general support.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICE OF THE HON. HENRY ERSKINE.

Died, at his seat of Ammondell, Linlithgowshire, on the 8th Octo. in the 71st year of his age, the Hon. Henry Erskine, second son of the late Henry David, Earl of Buchan.

Mr. Erskine was called to the Scottish Bar, of which he was long the brightest ornament, in the year 1768, and was for several years Dean of the Faculty of Advocates; he was twice appointed Lord Advocate, in 1782 and in 1806, under the Rockingham and the Grenville administrations. During the years 1806 and 1807 he sat in Parliament for the Dunbar and Dumfries districts of boroughs.

In his long and splendid career at the Bar, Mr. Erskine was distinguished not only by the peculiar brilliancy of his wit, and the gracefulness, ease, and vivacity of his eloquence, but by the still rarer power of keeping those seducing qualities in perfect subordination to his judgment. By their assistance, he could not only make the most repulsive subjects agreeable, but the most abstruse easy and intelligible. In his profession, indeed, all his wit was argument, and each of his delightful illustrations a material step in his reasoning. To himself it seemed always as if they were recommended rather for their use than their beauty. And unques tionably they often enabled him to state a fine argument, or a nice distinction, not only in a more striking and pleasing way, but actually with greater precision, than could have been attained by the severer forms of reasoning.

In this extraordinary talent, as well as in the charming facility of his eloquence, and the constant radiance of good humour and gaiety which encircled his manner in debate, he had no rival in his own times, and has yet had no successor. That part of eloquence is now mute,—that honour in abeyance.

As a Politician, he was eminently distinguished for the two great virtues of inflexible steadiness to his principles, and invariable gentleness and urbanity in his manner of asserting them. Such, indeed, was the habitual sweetness of his temper, and the fascination of his manners, that though placed, by his rank and talent, in the obnoxious station of a Leader of Opposition, at a period when political animosities were carried to a lamentable height, no individual, it is believed, was ever known to speak or to think of him with any thing approaching to personal hostility. In return, it may be said, with equal correctness, that though baffled in some of his pursuits, & not quite handsomely dealt by in some of the honours to which his claim was universally admitted, he never allowed the slightest shade of discontent to rest upon his mind, nor the least drop of bitterness to mingle with his blood. He was so utterly incapable of rancour, that even the rancorous felt that he ought not to be made its victim.

He possessed, in an eminent degree, that deep sense of Revealed Religion, and that zealous attachment to the Presbyterian Establishment, which had long been hereditary in his family. His habits were always strictly moral and temperate, and in the latter part of his life even abstemious. Though the life and the ornament of every society into which he entered, he was always most happy and most delightful at home, where the buoyancy of his spirits, and the kindness of his heart, found all that they required of exercise or enjoyment; and though without taste for expensive pleasures in his own person, he was ever most indulgent and munificent to his children, and a liberal benefactor to all who depended on his bounty.

He finally retired from the exercise of that profession, the highest honours of which he had at least divided, about the year 1812, & spent the remainder of his days, in domestic retirement at that beautiful villa which had been formed by his own taste, and in the improvement and adornment of which he found his latest occupation. Passing, then, at once from all the bustle and excitement of a public life to a scene of comparative inactivity, he never felt one moment of ennui or dejection; but retained unimpaired, till within a day or two of his death, not only all his intellectual activity and social affections, but, when not under the immediate affliction of a painful and incurable disease, all that gaiety of spirit, and all that playful and kindly sympathy with innocent enjoyment, which made him the idol of the young, and the object of cordial attachment and unenvying admiration to his friends of all ages.

He was twice married; first to Miss Fullerston and afterwards to Miss Erskine Munro, the sister of Brigadier General Munro, who now commands in the south of the Dekhan, a lady of distinguished talents and accomplishments.

HEAD QUARTERS: ARMY OF THE DECKAN.

To the Right Honorable
HUGH ELLIOT,
Governor in Council, &c &c. &c.
Fort St. George.

HONORABLE SIR,

I have the honor to acquaint your Honorable Board, that the Force under my Command took the Fort of Talnier by Storm yesterday, after a severe contest, in which I have deeply to lament that Major Gordon and Captain Macgregor, of His Majesty's Royal Scots, were killed, and Lieutenant Colonel Murray, with several other Officers were wounded.

The circumstances under which this Fortress resisted rendered it absolutely necessary that a severe example should be made of it; the Killedar was hanged and the Garrison put to the sword. I shall to-morrow have the honor of forwarding Copies of my Report of this affair to The Most Noble The Governor General, for the information of your Honorable Board.

To The Right Honorable
HUGH ELLIOT,
Governor in Council,
Fort St. George.

HONORABLE SIR,

Having yesterday apprized your Honorable Board of the Capture of the Fortress of Talnier by the Troops under my Command, I have now the honor in pursuance of the intention expressed in that Communication, to transmit the Copies of my Dispatch and of its Enclosures, to His Excellency The Most Noble The Governor General and Commander in Chief, detailing the particulars of the event.

I have the honor to be, with great respect,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant.

HEAD QUARTERS: ARMY OF THE DECKAN.

To His Excellency The Most Noble
The MARQUIS OF HASTINGS, K. G.
Governor General & Commander in Chief,
&c. &c &c

MY LORD,

In my Dispatch of the 23d Instant, I apprized your Lordship of my having taken possession of the Fort of Sindwah, and of my intention to pursue my route to the Southward on the following day. Having descended the Sindwah Ghaut without molestation from the Heights, I reached Kurrone on the 26th Instant, and moved toward the Tapy at this place yesterday. On the march I received information that the Killedar of Talnier had determined upon resisting the occupation of his Fort by the British Troops; and this, on my arrival before the place, I found to be correct, as he had already commenced a Fire from a few Guns and a number of Matchlocks from the walls upon our advanced Parties.

On this I directed a reconnoissance to be made by the Quarter Master General, Lieutenant Colonel Blacker, and the Officers of Engineers, with a Company of Light Infantry, the deep ravine round the place preventing its accessibility on this service by the Cavalry Picquets; I sent at the same time a letter to the Killedar, warning him of the consequences which would ensue from his rebellion, if persisted in: to this I received no answer, but I afterwards learned that it had been delivered to him.

The reconnoissance being completed, I directed the ten 6 Pounders, (including the Horse Artillery Gun) and two 5½ Inch Howitzers, with some 12 pounder Rocketts to be brought into position, so as to knock off in as great a degree as such limited means would admit of, the defences of the gateway, these opened with admirable effect about eleven o'clock, from the heights on which the Peetah is situated, from about one hundred to three hundred yards distant from the walls, the Enemy keeping up an occasional fire from his Guns, and a sharp one from his Matchlocks, by which several casualities occurred.

A second reconnoissance having been made by Lieutenant Colonel Blacker, who advanced to the outer gate for the purpose, I determined upon storming it, in the hope that at all events, a lodgement might be made within. Two 6 Pounders were accordingly brought under cover close to the gateway, and the Flank Companies of His Majesty's Royal Scots and Madras European Regiment under Major Gordon of the former Corps, supported by the Rifle Battalion, the 3d Light Infantry, and the Picquets, under Major Knowles, were brought from Camp for this purpose.

Meanwhile the Killedar, alarmed at these preparations, and at the effect of the batteries, sent to solicit terms; he was desired to open his gates, and to surrender himself and his Garrison unconditionally, which he promised to do; some delay however taking place, and the day beginning to decline, the Guns and Europeans were brought up to the first gate, which was however entered by the Europeans at the side by single files, without requiring to be blown open; the next gate was found open, and at the third, the Killedar came out by the wicket, with a number of Banyans, whom he had on the previous evening forced into the Fort from the Peetah, and surrendered himself to the Adjutant General, Lieutenant Colonel Conway: The Party advanced through another gate, and found the fifth, which led into the body of the place shut, and the Arabs within still insisting upon terms,—after some delay, the wicket of this gate was opened from within, and Lieutenant Colonel MacGregor Murray and Major Gordon entered by it, with two or three Officers, and ten or twelve Grenadiers of the Royal Scots, who were leading; I lament to state to your Lordship that this gallant Band, was immediately attacked by the treacherous Arabs within, before adequate aid could be given from the wicket; in a moment they were fired upon, and struck down with spears and daggers; the intrepid Major Gordon and Captain Macgregor, resigned their invaluable lives on the spot; and Lieutenant Colonel Murray was wounded in several places with daggers, before he had time to draw his sword to defend himself; I have no common satisfaction however in acquainting your Lordship, that this brave officer is doing well, as are also I am happy to add, Captain O'Brien, Assistant Adjutant General, Lieutenant Anderson of Engineers, Lieutenant Macgregor of His Majesty's Royal Scots, and Lieutenant Chauvel of the 2d Madras Native Regiment, who were wounded, the two former at the batteries, and two latter at the wicket.

When the attack commenced at the inner gate, the outer one was directed by Lieutenant Colonel Conway to be blown open, while the fire from the batteries covered the assault; thirty or forty of the leading Grenadiers having, in the meantime, succeeded in getting through the wicket, the Garrison took shelter in the houses in the Fort, whence they still opposed an obstinate resistance, but the remainder of the storming party having by this time got into the place, the whole of the Garrison, consisting of about three hundred Men, of whom a considerable number were Arabs, were put to the sword; a severe example indeed, but absolutely necessary, and one which I have no doubt will produce the most salutary effect in the future operations in this Province.

The Killedar I ordered to be hanged on one of the bastions immediately after the place fell; whether he was accessary or not to the subsequent treachery of his Men, his execution was a punishment justly due to his rebellion in the first instance, particularly after the warning he had received in the morning.

Our casualties, besides the irreparable loss sustained in Major Gordon and Captain Macgregor, your Lordship will perceive by the accompanying Return of killed and wounded, are much less numerous than might have been expected from the desperate nature of the service on which the Troops were engaged.

The conduct of the whole of the General, Personal, and Divisional Staff, on this occasion, merited, as usual, my highest approbation and best acknowledgments: I have the honor to refer your Lordship to the enclosed transcript of my General Order, of this date; and to be,

With the greatest respect, &c.

HEAD QUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE DECKAN.
Camp near Talnier, Saturday, 28th Feb. 1818.

G. O. BY THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Hislop, Baronet, Commander in Chief of the Army of the Deckan, requests the Officers and Troops engaged yesterday upon the attack of Talnier, will accept his thanks for their gallant and zealous exertions, during the short but arduous contest.

The professional ability and experience of Major Noble, C.B. Commanding the Artillery; were highly conspicious in the judicious application of the very limited means at his disposal for opening a road into the Fort.

The Artillery was most ably served, and its execution far surpassed what could have been expected to be accomplished with Light Field Pieces.

The Commander in Chief requests that Major Noble, C. B. Captains Rudyard and M'Intosh, and Brigade Major Bonner of the Artillery, as well as the whole of the Officers, Non-commissioned and Privates of that excellent Corps, will accept his best thanks and acknowledgments, for the valuable services they yesterday performed.

The Commander in Chief has on this arduous occasion, to deem himself most fortunate in experiencing the able, zealous and valuable services of his Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant Elliot of the Royal Engineers, of which in consequence of the wound he received early in the Battle of the 21st December last, His Excellency had to lament the privation during the remainder of the day.

The services also of Lieutenant Anderson and Ensign Purton of Engineers, were eminently conspicuous, and His Excellency regrets that the wound which Lieutenant Anderson received, should deprive him even for a moment of that Officer's valuable services.

The want of sufficient means to carry on regular operations against the Fort of Talnier, obliged His Excellency The Commander in Chief to rest much on the well known gallantry of his Troops, on which he had the fullest reason, from previous experience, to rely, and his expectations were as usual most fully realized.

His Excellency regrets that this Army and their Country in general; should have to lament the loss of such distinguished Officers and valuable Men, as Major Gordon and Captain Macgregor of His Majesty's Royal Scots, the former Commanding the Storming Party (which consisted of the Flank Companies His Majesty's Royal Scots under Captain Hulme and of the Madras European Regt. under Capt. Markland), and the latter Commanding the Grenadiers of His Majesty's Royal Scots.

Major Gordon and Captain Macgregor fell gloriously at the head of the gallant Storming party, almost at the moment when their intrepidity and courage had achieved the object of the attack.

To Major Knowles, who with the Rifle Corps, the 3d Light Infantry, and the Piquets supported the attack, the Commander in Chief offers his cordial acknowledgments, for the zeal, decision and intelligence which distinguished that Officer upon all occasions; and His Excellency also requests that Major Snow, Commanding the Rifle Corps, will receive his high approbation of his own exemplary conduct and of the useful services of his Corps.

The Commander in Chief also notices with high satisfaction, the good conduct and discipline of the 1st Battalion 3d Regimen Light Infantry under Captain Agnew, and the Picquets on duty under Captain Cuffley of the 16th Light Infantry.

The conduct of the Pioneers during the whole of their arduous duties in the attack of yesterday, was such as to call for the highest approbation of the Commander in Chief, and His Excellency offers to Captain MacCraith, Commanding the Pioneers, his warmest acknowledgments for his own distinguished and exemplary conduct, as well as to the whole of the Officers, Non-Commissioned and Privates of his Corps.

His Excellency anxiously trusts that he shall not be long deprived of the valuable services of the Officers and Men who were wounded in the attack, and he assures that gallant and distinguished Officer, Lieutenant Colonel Macgregor Murray, Deputy Adjutant General of His Majesty's Forces, and Captain O'Brien, Assistant Adjutant General, as well as Lieutenant Anderson of Engineers, Lieutenant Macgregor, His Majesty's Royal Scots, and Ensign Chauvel, 1st Battalion 2d Regiment N. I. of his most earnest wishes for their early recovery.

The conduct of Lieutenant Colonel Conway, Adjutant General of the Army, and the unceasing and energetic display of that Officer's personal courage and able arrangement throughout the day, were such, as His Excellency well knew, from former experience, that he should derive the greatest benefit from; Sir Thomas Hislop begs the Lieutenant Colonel to accept of his warmest thanks for the great aid he has on the present occasion received from him.

The judicious and accurate reconnoissances made by Lieutenant Colonel Blacker, Quarter Master General of the Army & the ability and gallantry of that Officer, in conducting the important arrangements of his Department, during the operations of yesterday, were such also as to entitle him to His Excellency's warmest thanks and acknowledgments.

Sir Thomas Hislop desires also to offer his best thanks to Lieutenant Colonel The Honorable L. Stanhope, who with Lieutenant Colonel Murray accompanied the Flank Companies of His Majesty's Royal Scots in the storm, for his gallantry and conduct on this occasion, and to Major Hugh Scott, Military Secretary, and every Officer of the General, Personal and Divisional Staff, His Excellency tenders his warmest acknowledgements for the display of that energy and promptitude for which on this as on former occasions, they have been distinguished.

GENERAL ORDERS, BY THE HONORABLE THE VICE-PRESIDENT IN COUNCIL.

Fort William, March [illegible] 1818.

The Dispatch of which the following is a Copy, addressed by His Excellency Lieut. General Sir Thomas Hislop, to His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor General, on the subject of the brilliant exploit achieved by the Detachment under the Command of Captain Staunton, of the 2d Battalion of the 1st Regt. Bombay Native Infantry, at Corygaum, on the 1st of January last, having been received at the Presidency since the date of the Government Gazette of the 5th instant, in which the details of that memorable Victory were inserted, is now ordered by the Honorable the Vice-President in Council, to be published for general information, together with the General Orders issued under the authority of His Excellency Sir Thomas Hislop, on the occasion; omitting such parts, as have already been officially communicated to the Public.

Head Quarters, Army of the Deckan.

To His Excellency the Most Noble The MARQUIS OF HASTINGS, K. G. Governor General and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD

I have extraordinary satisfaction in transmitting, for the information of your Lordship, the official details of one of the most heroic actions which had ever been fought and gained by an handful of men over a large Army.

The accompanying transcript of Brigadier General Smith's Dispatch, and of the General Order which I yesterday published to the Army on this brilliant occasion, will place your Lordship in full possession of the particulars of the Battle, in which the 2d Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Bombay Native Infantry, aided by a small party of Madras Artillery Men, with two six pounders, and about three hundred Auxiliary Horse, have nobly sustained, during a whole day, and finally repulsed, the unceasing and vigorous efforts of the Peishwah's Army, under circumstances of peculiar difficulty and privation, which render the exploit altogether unparalleled.

I need not again, in this place, recapitulate the names of the Officer who have aided the intrepid Captain Staunton, in gaining the victory of Corygaum; their individual merits are brought to your Lordship's notice in the accompanying documents, and they will be certain to receive, from their Government and their Country, that admiration of, and gratitude for, their devoted gallantry, to which they are so highly entitled.

I most sincerely congratulate your Lordship on an event, which has, if possible heightened the renown of the Indian Army, and from which I cannot but anticipate results of the highest political importance, since such a defeat must inevitably tend to paralyse the future exertions of the enemy, and prove to him the hopelessness of continuing a War with any success against a power which has such Troops to oppose to him.

I have the honor, &c.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,
Head Quarters.

SIR,

I have the honor to report to you for the information of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, that the Division under my command leaving its heavy Park in Seroor, marched on the 22d ultimo, in pursuit of the Peishwah's Army, which had gone North and entered the Ghauts; His Highness had taken the direction of Kullum and Jeanier and by report had taken pains to break up the passes to prevent my following him. I therefore both to avoid impediments, and to keep between His Highness and the more Eastern Ghauts, which overlook Candeish, directed my march by Ahmeddnuggar, Rahvoory and Sungumneir and as far North as Akawla, on the Paira, where I arrived on the 28th ultimo.

This brought me to the Northward of the Peishwah's Army, within the Ghauts, and His Highness who was on the point of proceeding on a religious ceremony to Nassuck, immediately retraced his Steps to the Southward.

I entered the Wussoera Ghaut, with great difficulty, on the 29th ultimo, the passes having been blocked up and trenched by the enemy; the guns could only be dragged by great labor of the Troops, and my rear guard did not reach Camp till 12 o'clock the following day.

Finding the Peishwah continued in rapid flight, I now formed 2 detachments, proceeding myself on the 30th ultimo, in direct pursuit with the Horse Artillery, 2d Regiment Madras Cavalry, His Majesty's 65th Regiment, the Light Battalion, and 1st Battalion 2d Regiment, Bombay Native Infantry; and directing Lieutenant Colonel Boles of the Madras establishment, with the Foot Artillery, Bombay European Regiment, and 2 Native Battalions to descend the Ghauts and keep in parallel marches with me, to prevent his escape towards Candeish.

I lament to say that all our exertions to keep up with the enemy failed, tho' I had continued marching upon him for 13 successive days without a halt, averaging upwards of 17 miles a day, including the passage of 3 Ghauts. His Highness kept in rapid march until he reached Poolishier on the Beema near Poonah, where he arrived with the whole of his army on the 31st, augmented by that of Trimbuckjee's Infantry, which had joined him to the Northward.

Lieutenant Colonel Burr, Commanding the Troops at Poonah, uneasy at the proximity of His Highness's Army on its march to Poolshier, and not adverting unfortunately to my pursuit of him, which allowed him neither means or time to attack the Capital, had under these circumstances pressingly called for the assistance of a Detachment from Seroor, and which marching on the 31st reached Corygaum on the Beema, at the very time the enemy had assembled at Poolshier.

This gave rise to one of the most brilliant affairs ever achieved in any Army, in which the European and Native Soldiers displayed a most noble devotion and most romantic bravery, under the pressure of thirst and hunger, almost beyond human endurance.

I have the honor to enclose the official reports of this affair, and I shall to-morrow forward a Copy of my Division Orders, detailing the particulars of the exemplary conduct of the Troops engaged.

My advance upon Corygaum the moment I became acquainted with the critical situation of the detachment, and which I reached on the 3d instant, enabled me to save several of the Wounded, who could not be
